

JACOPO BENEDETTI

Jacopo Benedetti is a designer, a visual artist, a photographer and a terrible rock dancer.

Born in 1981, In Rome, professional associate, member and certified:

- TAU Visual [National Association of Professional Photographers,Italy]

- Nikon NPS [Nikon Professional service]

Quick learner, preposition for hard working, extrovert, versatile, strong on teamwork and in multicultural environments with a great sense of responsibility, sociable, eased to adapt to new situations; strong aiming to learn and increase personal knowledge.

A degree in Architecture and multimedia design.

A specialization in Design of Systems to MIUR [higher education and research].

He works as a freelance for various companies and private entities, to grow up knowledge, experience and skills, as a researcher and designer, through photography and graphics. He grows from self-taught in photography since before the PC.

Jacopo is infected about this world wide expression form, publishing on different italian magazines, and appear with some shots on National Geographic Ita and usa.

Always in love to shape, light, and spaces Jacopo is looking for the perfect balance between form and function; working, creating, thinking, drawing, cooking, watching, sleeping, tasting, reading, joking and photographing, that one always.
